

Joke of the day: Bob the sheepdog was getting the sheep in for Farmer Fred.

He completed his task and went bounding over to the Farmer shouting, "Farmer Fred, Farmer Fred... I chased 40 sheep into the yard for you."

"40 sheep?" queries Farmer Fred. "I've only got 37"

"I know," says Bob, "I rounded them up!"

Friday again already. I have really enjoyed seeing and reading your work this week; some of your letters made me fill up. It has been so hard picking which of you should get Hot Chocolate Friday or a Good Work Certificate - there are so many of you who deserve it!

Warm-up activity:

How many words can you think of that start with 't' and finish with 'n'?

Set a timer for 5 minutes and see which member of your family can find the most.

Maths: Football Problem Solving

Today, you need to solve some football problems involving how much money a football team can make from their ticket prices. There are two different levels of challenge on the same sheet, The top box is a little easier than the bottom box. You don't have to do both. Read the information at the top really carefully so you understand what you need to do. Message me if you need me to explain it. You can't write on the sheet so you will need to do the working out in your jotters. The sheet and answers are in Google Classroom.

English - Crash!

English today is a cross between guided reading and writing a story. It is an activity that will help you develop your imagination and creativity! It involves you thinking about this picture and then answering some questions about what might have happened and what might happen next. You then need to finish the story. It might be Friday but I am sure that you have some great writing left inside you!

Don't rush the questions as they will help you finish the story as they will be your ideas. The story does not have to be very long. Think quality not quantity! You will know you have been successful if you write a story that you would want to read. Don't forget to include all of the things that make a good short story - drama, interesting characters and great language. There is a sheet in Google Classroom to type on called, 'English - Crash!'

P.E. - Don't forget to do something active today.

Why not do a Joe Wicks routine today; over a million people around the world are streaming his work outs every day!

Music - Singing and signing to Katy Perry's Roar

It's time to do some singing! Singing is known to release endorphins, the feel-good brain chemical that makes you feel uplifted and happy. Not only that, but singing can simply take your mind off the day's troubles to boost your mood. Today you need to sing loudly and proudly to Roar. You can do the signing too. Choir members - you should be very good at this by now!

Art: Collage self-portraits

To end this week of home learning, you need to create a self-portrait collage using materials from around your house. This could be ripped up magazines, pieces of cardboard from your recycling, buttons, wool, or anything else that could be used. Sketch the outline of your face first, then start to place different pieces on to build up your features. If you don't have any glue, you could always use sellotape.

Class book. The last installment of this week should be on Google Classroom by the time you are reading this! Have a lovely weekend.
