

Kirk Fenton we need you...

While our school is missing seeing all of your smiling faces, we need something else to cheer it up!

If you feel like getting crafty, why not make something colourful to decorate our school fence or gates to add a bit of positivity for everyone who passes.

Let's decorate our school to spread some joy and show our thankfulness and respect to all the key workers.

