

KS1 3D Shape Challenge Cards

Here are a series of of challenge cards to help children learn about 3D shapes! Perfect for children aged 5–7. Use as a pair game, as a morning activity, for home learning or as a maths intervention.

3D Shape Challenge Cards

● Shape Challenge Cards	● Shape Challenge Cards
 What is this shape called? How many edges does it have? How many vertices does it have? How many faces does it have? What shapes are its faces? 	 What is this shape called? How many edges does it have? How many vertices does it have? How many faces does it have? What shapes are its faces?

3D Shape Challenge Cards

Shape Challenge Cards

What is this shape called?
How many edges does it have?
How many vertices does it have?
How many faces does it have?
What shapes are its faces?

Shape Challenge Cards

What is this shape called?
How many edges does it have?
How many vertices does it have?
How many faces does it have?
What shapes are its faces?

Shape Challenge Cards

What is this shape called?
How many edges does it have?
How many vertices does it have?
How many faces does it have?
What shapes are its faces?

Shape Challenge Cards

What is this shape called?
How many edges does it have?
How many vertices does it have?
How many faces does it have?
What shapes are its faces?

3D Shape Challenge Cards

Shape Challenge Cards

Look at these objects – what shape are they?

Shape Challenge Cards

Find objects in the room that are: cylinders, cubes, cuboids, square based pyramids, triangular prisms, spheres, triangular based pyramids.

Look at this object – what shape is it?

