

Order the numbers from smallest to greatest:

12, 11, 16, 13

14, 13, 16, 15

17, 12, 16, 19

18, 15, 19, 11

True or false:

If I order these numbers from greatest to smallest, number 15 will be in the middle.

12, 14, 18, 16, 15

Which possible numbers could you use to complete the order?

14 _____ 18

Order the numbers from greatest to smallest:

14, 11, 17, 13

19, 13, 12, 15

11, 17, 16, 12

15, 16, 17, 14

True or false:

If I order these numbers from greatest to smallest, number 12 will be first.

19, 21, 16, 13, 18

Molly baked 20 buns

Dan baked $10 + 3$ buns

Lina bakes more buns than Dan but less than Molly. How many could she have baked?

How many possible answers are there?

Which number could complete the sequences?

11, 12, 13, _____, 15

19, 18, _____, 16, 15

12, _____, 14, 15, 16

17, 16, _____, 15, _____

True or false:

If I order these numbers from smallest to greatest, the first number will be 8 less than the last number.

14, 12, 19, 13, 11

23, 22, 21, 20, ?

Jim says "the missing number is 91." Is he correct?

Why do you think this?