Dave the snail was feeling fed up of being a slow snail. One day he had a great idea. He wanted to be a painter. He wanted to paint and make beautiful pictures. Dave loved to paint the sky. He painted the grey clouds rolling in the sky and then the rain came. It made everything wet and eight year old Dave felt sad. He went straight to bed after eating a steak. The next morning, Dave went out to play and felt happy to be a snail after all.
