November 2021

Welcome to our Christmas reading newsletter!

It has been a busy term so far at Kirk Fenton. We have all enjoyed using our new library to choose and share exciting books, both new and old. In our latest Reading Newsletter, you will find lots of recommendations for Christmas book gifts, reading news and lots more.

CAKE SALE!

Our fantastic new library is in need of some new books so that we have a wider range of up-to-date, diverse literature. This Wednesday, 24th November, after school on the playground, there will be a cake sale with all proceeds going towards new books. We would welcome any donations of cakes - no nuts please!

Meet our Reading Ambassadors!

We are delighted to have such an enthusiastic group of children as our new Reading Ambassadors. They began their new roles being selected as judges for the Royal Society's Young People's Book Prize 2021. This involves them reviewing some exciting new science books for this National prize.

In the next few weeks they will be starting a reading club in the library, recommending and reading books to children across school, and helping us to decide which books would be good additions to our library.

CHRISTMAS READING CHALLENGE

On Saturday 27th November, Sherburn Community Library will be launching their Christmas Reading Challenge. Children need to read 4 books between November 27th and Christmas Eve and collect rewards, gifts and a tree bauble along the way as they complete the Challenge! Think you can take on the challenge? Pop into the library and sign up!

Can you help?

If you have any books, comics, children's magazines, graphic novels and annuals you no longer need, we would welcome them for our library. Drop-off outside school w/c 29th November.

Christmas Appeal

The BookTrust Christmas appeal raises money to send festive book parcels to children who are vulnerable or in care. If you would like to donate to their appeal, you can find the details at:

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/>

We love working with local bookshops and are proud to have purchased books for school through local providers.

The Little Apple Bookshop in York is a fantastic place crammed with the most beautiful selection of children's books. It's makes a great visit as part of a day out in York.

Check their opening hours here: <https://www.littleapplebookshop.co.uk/>
